*If you carry your childhood with you,
 you never become older.
 – Abraham Sutzkever*

*Old age may seem a long way off.
 But on the day it doesn't, it will be too late to do anything about it.
 Don't just count your years,
 make your years count
 .– Ernest Meyers*

*Live your life and forget your age.
 – Norman Vincent Peale*

*Methuselah lived to be 969 years old.
 You boys and girls will see more in the next fifty years than Methuselah saw in his whole lifetime.
 – Mark Twain*

*You can judge your age by the amount of pain you feel when you come in contact with a new idea.
 – John Nuveen*

*I wake up every morning at nine and grab for the morning paper.
 Then I look at the obituary page.
 If my name is not on it, I get up.
 – Harry Hershfield*

*One of the many things nobody ever tells you about middle age is that it's such a nice change from being young.
 – Dorothy Canfield Fisher*

*He is so old that his blood type was discontinued.
 – Bill Dana*

*Age is not a particularly interesting subject. Anyone can get old. All you have to do is live long enough.
 – Groucho Marx*

*I'm saving that rocker for the day when I feel as old as I really am.
 – Dwight D. Eisenhower*

Those who love deeply never grow old; they may die of old age, but they die young – Benjamin Franklin

*A man must have grown old and lived long in order to see how short life is.
 – Arthur Schopenhauer*

*Time wounds all heels.
 – Dorothy Parker*
