

SAGE Award Nominees 2016

JOCHEN EGGERT

Mr. Eggert's long-standing dedication to arts and community groups includes serving as Board member & President for the Edmonton Youth Orchestra & the programming committee for the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. But it is through his position as producer of the Winspear Centre Christmas Carol Sing-Along, that he has turned an annual Christmas event into a musical fundraiser; he has helped to raise close to $170,000 for the Christmas Bureau during the past 10+ years.

Affiliations: Richard Eaton Singers
<http://richardeatonsingers.com/>
Edmonton Christmas Bureau
<https://www.christmasbureau.ca/>

BRIAN JONES

For more than 40 years, Mr. Jones has been a dedicated and enthusiastic member of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, both as principle percussionist and a leader. What's more, as a lecturer for the Music Department at U of A, he has been an instructor and inspiring mentor for young musicians. Brian's other interests extend to volunteer fund-raising, animal rescue, recreational hockey and of course his grandchildren, who may one day manifest their musical inheritance.

Affiliation: Edmonton Symphony Orchestra
<http://www.edmontonsymphony.com/>

ANNE MARSHALL

As Director and accompanist of the Melody Singers Choir at the South East Edmonton Seniors Centre (SEESA) for the past ten years, Anne's passion and patience have realized the growth in this choral group to over 50 members. She has also enriched the programming of SEESA by fostering interest & instructing in other musical, dramatic, and artistic endeavors.

Affiliation: South East Edmonton Seniors Association (SEESA)
<http://www.seesa.ca/>

JOAN NEAL

From singing in St. Luke's Anglican church choir for more than 50 years to performing at Carnegie Hall with the Concordia Community Chorus, Joan Neal has always found a way to express her voice. Then as she has branched out into musical theatre with Alberta Lyric Theatre, she began adding costume designer (& scavenger) to her list of many talents.

Affiliations: St. Luke's Anglican Church
<http://stlukesanglicanchurch.org/>
Concordia Community Chorus
<http://music.concordia.ab.ca/chorus/>

HELEN V. RICHARDS

This active individual has spent a lifetime of participation and leadership in her community, and after the age of 60, she found a new avenue through which to funnel her creative energy by founding the Laurier Heights Art Society. For the past 25 years, Helen has facilitated workshops with well known artists, and organized art shows around Edmonton. She also brought together art teachers for the Edmonton Lifelong Learners Association from 2007-2012.

Affiliation: Laurier Heights Community League
<http://lhcl.ca/>

NEIL CHYMKO

Since its inception in 1983, Neil Chymko has been involved with the Castle Downs Recreation Society (CDRS) and during that time the organization has come to value his foresight and strong belief in community partnerships. Since turning 60, Neil continues to organize the Canada Day celebrations in Castle Downs Park, with 3000+ in attendance, and most recently he spearheaded a partnership among the CDRS, Canada Lands (the developer) and the military to erect the "Flanders Field Park" in the Griesbach subdivision – a wonderful tribute to the life of John MacCrae and his historic poem.

Affiliations: Castle Downs Recreation Society
<http://www.castledowns.ca/>
Flanders Field Park
<http://www.villageatgriesbach.com/news.aspx>

MARGARET DAY

Throughout her life, Margaret has served tirelessly to contribute to the greater good of her community and the City of Edmonton at large. The number of Board advisory positions she has held since the age of 60 are too numerous to list here, but they encompass everything from Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues, Area Council 17, Kiwanis & the Alberta Safety Council. Amid all this, you might also find her helping with upgrades to her local community hall.

Affiliations: Area Council 17
<http://www.evansdale.ca/area-17/>
Kiwanis Oil Capital
<http://www.oilcapitalkiwanis.ca/>

JEAN DESLAURIERS

A fitting description of Jean Deslauriers is “community champion”. Over the past 12 years he has served as President, past president and in various other capacities of the Cumberland Oxford Community League. Many bingos, casinos, playgrounds and meetings later, he is seen as the “go to” person for almost anything that needs to get done, while at the same time serving as an inspiration and mentor for others in the league to get involved. Aside from his community activities, Jean is also a dedicated member of the Shriners organization.

Affiliation: Cumberland Oxford Community League
<http://www.cocl.org/>

ED & BRENDA DOUCET

This couple are nominated together as they not only support their community of Londonderry, as well as the North Edmonton Seniors Association, they also support each other’s volunteer activities. They have been active fund raisers, taken board and executive positions in community organizations, and are regularly the people on scene doing the work that volunteer organizations just need to get done! – modeling to others that volunteering is a rewarding and enjoyable thing to do.

Affiliation: North Edmonton Seniors Association (NEESA)
<http://www.nesa1.ca/>

CATHY McLEAN

After taking over the position of Executive Director of the Senior Citizen Opportunity Neighbourhood Association (SCONA) in 2006, Cathy McLean has guided this organization through some financially challenging times into the vibrant organization it is today. SCONA caters to the social and leisure needs of older, and often frailer seniors, and Cathy has shown commitment and dedication to enriching the lives of these seniors by implementing innovative programming alternatives and creating an accessible and supportive environment for them to engage with others.

Affiliation: Senior Citizen Opportunity Neighbourhood Association (S.C.O.N.A.)
<http://www.sconaseniors.com/>

PATRICIA (PAT) MOFFITT

Mrs. Moffitt has been an outstanding member of Beacon Heights Community for the past 50+/- years, and most recently has held the position of Seniors Liaison. In this capacity she developed a snow removal system for seniors in the neighbourhood and started a Nordic pole walking group, which initially was a recreational opportunity for seniors, and now has turned into a cross-generational activity.

Affiliation: Beacon Heights Community League
<https://beaconheightscl.ca/>

RICHARD (DICK) NICHOLS

For the past 19 years Dick Nichols has been the renovations and maintenance guru for the Delwood Community League. His leadership, creativity and problem solving skills have helped them get through many refurbishing jobs including the rink, rink shack & flood lights, replacing the hall roof, and installing a new dance floor, to name a few. Dick's dedication extends to staying on top of the constant repairs and maintenance required on the Delwood facilities and equipment and to train others to maintain his standard of quality and efficiency.

Affiliation: Delwood Community League
<http://www.delwood.ca/>

MARY PLITT

As a senior living with vision loss, Mary Plitt was not someone to sit around and feel sorry for herself. Ten years ago, when there were no organizations, social supports or information for visually impaired persons in Leduc, she decided to research how to obtain funding to develop a support group which soon became known as the Leduc Sight Seekers. This is just one of the many things that Mary has done at the Leduc Lifestyle Option Lodge to make life better for its residents and the community at large.

Affiliations: Leduc Lifestyle Option Lodge
 <http://lifestyleoptions.ca/leduc/>
 Leduc Sight Seekers

SHARON SCHIEWE

This nominee has spent the past six years on the Board Directors of the group responsible for the planning and development of the Mill Woods Seniors' Activity Centre which opened in 2015. With Mill Woods having the highest percentage of seniors in Edmonton the project was welcomed by the community, and Sharon deserves much appreciation for her tireless advocacy for services to help seniors in her area.

Affiliation: Mill Woods Seniors' Activity Centre
 <http://www.mwsac.ca/latest-news>

JEAN WHITTINGBACK SHIRLAW

Jean Shirlaw has a true volunteer spirit, donating much of her time to the social and fund-raising activities of her church, St. Luke's Anglican. She has also been competition coordinator for the Edmonton Highland Dancing Association, and a regular pianist at Good Samaritan Auxiliary Hospital and Holyrood Continuing Care. Add to this the rides she gives and the visits she makes to less mobile seniors, her kindness and positive attitude has touched the lives of many people.

Affiliation: St. Luke's Anglican Church
 <http://stlukesanglicanchurch.org/>

ATIYA SIDDIQUI

For the past 10 years Atiya has been volunteering for the Multicultural Women & Seniors Services Association, whose mandate is to provide programs and services to meet the unique needs of immigrant seniors and women who may be isolated from outside social contact. Atiya's enthusiasm and kindness has encouraged countless women to come out of their isolation, to meet others who are in similar circumstances and to become acquainted with the resources available to increase their quality of life.

Affiliation: Multicultural Women & Seniors Services Association
<http://www.mwssa.org/>

SHAMEEM QUAWI SIDDIQUI

Shameem is a volunteer for the Multicultural Women & Seniors Services Association, whose mandate is to provide programs and services to immigrant seniors and women, especially those living in isolation. She has proven to be a magnet to countless women in this community, and her welcoming manner has contributed immeasurably to their confidence level in unfamiliar social interactions. In addition, Shameem has proven to be a committed fundraiser for the organization.

Affiliation: Multicultural Women & Seniors Services Association
<http://www.mwssa.org/>

ORRAIN GOLBERT SIMPSON

Orrain Simpson has served as Pastor of Bethel United Church since 1977, and during this time he has shown unwavering commitment to be of service to others, and to lead initiatives which bring hope to those less fortunate. Most recently, these activities have included: weekly ministry at Capital Care Lynwood; prison ministry to inmates of the Edmonton Remand Center; annual drive to procure and provide clothing & toiletries to those accessing the Bissell Centre, & an Annual community dinner at Bethel United that feeds in excess of 300 people.

Affiliation: Bethel United Church
<http://www.buctoday.com/>

OLIVE SYDOR

Olive is an energetic volunteer who never shies away from front line involvement. With The Edmonton Community Patrol Society, she has worked alongside police officers at K Days Parades and other events requiring security. She has also dedicated many hours to the enjoyment of programs and social activities for the Northern Alberta Pioneers and Descendants Association at the Old Timers Cabin. Add to this, countless bingos and casinos for Rosslyn Community, Area Council One & Edmonton Neighbourhood Watch, to name a few.

Affiliation: Northern Alberta Pioneers and Descendants Association
<http://oldtimerscabin.net/>
Edmonton Community Patrol Society
<http://www.edmontonpolice.ca/>

ALICE VANCE

Alice's selfless contribution to the congregation of St. Luke's Lutheran Church is an inspiration to others. She cheerfully makes and serves tea and coffee every week for those in attendance after the service. In spite of painful arthritis which makes this task quite difficult, she's always ready with a quiet smile, and is willing to listen to the concerns of others, rather than mentioning her own.

Affiliation: St. Luke's Lutheran Church
<http://stlukesanglicanchurch.org/>

GERALDINE (GERRI) YOUNG

After moving to Edmonton from Fort Nelson at the age of 70, Gerri Young has done some amazing things with her "spare" time. She has been instrumental in getting the congregation of St. Paul's United Church to provide Saturday lunches for Habitat for Humanity workers during construction season, then from Sept to April she organizes preparation of weekly suppers for another group – students of the U of A Faith Lift ministry. Gerri's thoughtful consideration and dedication to helping others is an inspiration to those who've come to know her.

Affiliations: St. Paul's United Church
<http://www.stpaulsunited.org/>
Habitat for Humanity
<https://www.hfh.org/>

BARB RANKIN

Barb Rankin is the embodiment of SAGE's mission of "inspiring and supporting seniors to be the best they can be". Over the past eight years, she has implemented and "grown" many programs that benefit the social, physical and mental well-being of seniors in the SAGE organization and the community at large. These include, among others, the Brain Fitness program (cognitive learning), teaching English as a second language, Holistic Twist (balanced healthy living), Fall Prevention and Emergency Preparedness.

Affiliations: SAGE Seniors Association
<http://www.mysage.ca/>

IRL MILLER

Since 1982, when the Department of Highways planned to construct an overpass at Yellowhead Hwy and Highway 44, Irl Miller has been at the forefront of the struggle to preserve the unique wetland habitat known as the Wagner Natural Area in Parkland County. This has resulted in the negotiation of successive leases in 1983, 2004 and 2015 which have protected and allowed for the expansion of this fragile habitat. Irl has also spent countless hours over the years maintaining the area and providing guided tours.

Affiliations: Wagner Natural Area
<http://www.wagnerfen.ca/>

SHERRY PARAN

Sherry Paran has been involved with the Canadian Mental Health Association, Edmonton region for many years. Most recently she co-facilitated the "Writing our Recovery Stories Group", which focuses on the use of writing as a tool in the recovery process for those living with mental illness. Sherry's passion for writing and her empathetic way of interacting with participants, have played an integral role in the success of this program.

Affiliation: Canadian Mental Health Association
<http://edmonton.cmha.ca/>

LAWRENCE TYMKO

Lawrence Tymko has spent a considerable amount of time with Integrated Services for Alberta's Seniors. This initiative proposes a community-based, single-entry system for seniors to access services relating to age-friendly housing, community supports and health care. His other endeavors include South West Edmonton Seniors Association, Alberta College & Association of Chiropractors and the Greater Edmonton Foundation.

Affiliation: Integrated Services for Alberta's Seniors
<http://www.ascha.com/>

JOAN BODDY & BETTY MORGAN

At the Edmonton Seniors Centre, Joan Boddy and Betty Morgan are truly the volunteering “dynamic duo” of volunteers. Both at 90 years young, these two women are an inspiration to all with whom they associate – living proof of how important it is to continue to live life to its fullest each day. They’re always willing to help others & share their positive attitude, knowing that a smile can go a long way in making another person’s day better.

Affiliation: Edmonton Seniors Activity Centre
<http://www.edmontonseniorscentre.ca/>

MARTY FORBES

Since his 60th birthday, Marty Forbes has given back very generously to the community, in part by exercising the talents he acquired during his career. These contributions include the production of numerous radiothons which have raised funds for children’s hospitals and for Make a Wish Northern Alberta, coordination of media for the Edmonton Singing Xmas Tree and serving on the board of Santa’s Anonymous, just to name a few. He is always looking for new ways to help others and is a shining example of the gift that seniors can give to the community.

Affiliation: Make a Wish Northern Alberta
<http://makeawishna.ca/>
Edmonton Singing Xmas Tree
<http://edmontonsingingchristmastree.com/>

NORMA HALOWSKI

For the past 42 years, Norma Halowski has touched many lives as a volunteer with the Misericordia Community Hospital. She is capable and committed with any role she undertakes: Admissions, Gift Shop, Beau Geste Coffee Shop, Cast Clinic, Surgical Dayward, Pain Clinic & Nursing wards. Norma has a way of spreading her infectious essence of compassion and hope wherever she goes.

Affiliation: Misericordia Community Hospital
<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/info/facility.aspx?id=7820>

LORETTA KLARENBACH

At the Dr. Gerald Zetter Care Centre, Loretta Klarenbach is known as a dedicated volunteer, demonstrating kindness, warmth and respect among the residents, visitors, other volunteers and staff. During the past 13 years she has given over 2,700 hours of her time, and currently is lead volunteer of the gift shop at the Centre where she oversees the many volunteers required to keep it operating smoothly.

Affiliation: Good Samaritan Society
Dr. Gerald Zetter Care Centre
<https://gss.org/locations/dr-gerald-zetter-care-centre/>

KEITH MacDONALD

As a member of the Al Shamal Shriners since 1977 (38 years), Keith MacDonald is currently the respected leader of the Oriental Band and the Arab Patrol unit of this organization. He has been instrumental in fostering an ongoing partnership among the Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital, the Glenrose Foundation and the Shriners which is manifested by many philanthropic endeavors. In addition to numerous musical performances, the Shriners conduct a toy/gift drive which provides gifts not only for the holiday season, but as symbols of recognition for the children as they reach milestones in their rehabilitation journey.

Affiliations: Al Shamal Shriner's Oriental Band
<https://www.alshamalshriners.org/>
Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation
<http://www.glenrosefoundation.com/>

PATRICIA (Pat) MacKENZIE

Pat Mackenzie has an extensive background in business, municipal governance, education and community involvement. She's been a strong leader, problem solver and consensus builder in every association in which she has participated. Most recently these include the Alberta Commission on the Future of Learning, Alberta Secretariat for Action on Homelessness, Law Enforcement Review Board and currently as Chair of Homeward Trust Edmonton.

Affiliations: Homeward Trust Edmonton
<http://www.homewardtrust.ca/home.php>
Law Enforcement Review Board
<http://www.edmontonpolicecommission.com/>

JEAN McEWAN

Jean McEwan has been a dedicated volunteer in the gift shop at Grey Nuns hospital for the past 16+ years. During that time she has provided 9200 hours of efficient service, always ensuring that visitors, staff and other volunteers in the gift shop are treated with respect and understanding. The funds raised are instrumental in making a difference to the patients and residents of the Grey Nuns, Edmonton General and Misericordia facilities, and it's volunteers like Jean that make this contribution possible.

Affiliation: Covenant Health – Grey Nuns Hospital
<https://www.covenanthealth.ca/hospitals-care-centres/grey-nuns-community-hospital/>

DON REIMER

For over a decade, Don Reimer has made an invaluable volunteer contribution to Fort Edmonton Park with his fine trade skills, attention to detail and his inspiration to others interested in the restoration and preservation of historical artifacts. For example, The 1920s Carousel, crown jewel of the midway, and the custom built 1929 Ford AA stake truck, are just two beloved attractions available for visitors to enjoy primarily because of Don's dedication to the tasks at hand.

Affiliation: Fort Edmonton Park
<https://www.fortedmontonpark.ca/>

DIANE E. SIMS

Diane Sims has contributed most significantly in developing the Leduc & District Senior Centre as a dynamic, congenial meeting place for seniors of all ages and interests to socialize and enjoy a variety of activities and special events. Plus, her ability to positively engage people has resulted in an increased membership, participation and a public relations profile in the larger community of Leduc, resulting in ~40% increase in revenues during the past four years.

Affiliation: Leduc & District Senior Centre
<http://www.members.shaw.ca/telfordhouse/>

SHARLENE WYNESS

As an active member of the volunteer core at the Alberta Caregivers Association, Sharlene's most significant contribution has been as facilitator of the COMPASS program for the past 10+ years. With her experience, wisdom and kindness she has encouraged and guided a multitude of caregivers through difficult circumstances, assuring them that they are not alone. She is also a member of the program committee, contributing her creativity, inspiration and collaboration with other volunteers and staff.

Affiliation: Alberta Caregivers Association
<http://www.albertacaregivers.org/about/who/>

LINDA AMBROSE

Linda Ambrose has volunteered at SAGE for a number of years, most notably as an instructor of computers for seniors. She loves her work and so many seniors have benefited from her knowledge and patience. In Linda's own words: "to watch someone see their first picture of a grandchild in an email, find a long lost friend on the internet or read news in one's mother tongue", these are experiences I will always treasure.

Affiliation: SAGE Seniors Association
<http://www.mysage.ca/>

KAREN GALL

This nominee has committed a large part of her life to building peaceful communities based on respect and reciprocity. Karen's passion is evident as an event organizer, speaker, panelist & participant at programs and presentations to various schools, churches and mosques raising awareness of underlying issues related to social justice. Her memberships include the Canadian Multicultural Education Foundation, Temple Beth Ora & the John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights.

Affiliations: Canadian Multicultural Education Foundation
<http://www.cmef.ca/>
John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights
<http://www.jhcentre.org/>

SYLVIA KUZIW

For the past 6+ years, Sylvia Kuziw has been an exceptional volunteer with The Zebra Centre, a non-profit organization that works to support children who have suffered from abuse, and to guide them through the criminal and judicial system. As Court Accompaniment, Sylvia's sensitivity and adaptability have assisted many children and families through very difficult and often confusing circumstances. It takes a very special volunteer to do this type of work.

Affiliation: The Zebra Centre
<http://zebracentre.ca/>

GERMAINE LEHODEY

Nine years ago Germaine Lehodey started a group known as Le Club D'Amitee St Thomas for isolated French Canadian seniors in Edmonton. Meeting every two weeks, this group focusses on the educational, spiritual, psychological and social needs of this special demographic, bringing in speakers, providing instruction (for example) in theatrical arts, and supplying a home cooked meal at nominal cost. Also incorporated, is a cross generational component so that the seniors have an opportunity to interact with grade 5 & 6 students from local French schools.

Affiliation: Federation des aines franco-albertains
<http://www.fafalta.ca/>

BETTY MacKEY

Betty MacKey has been a part of the Outreach Ministry at St. Albert United Church for most of her senior years: organizing the sponsorship for six Somali orphans, heading the ministry's inner city pastoral lunches at Bissell Centre, and coordinating fundraisers for the Christmas "No Room at the Inn" campaign for local charities. Outside the church, Betty has been involved in numerous groups, as a volunteer with Homeless Connect & Habitat for Humanity; and in India, she has worked with two organizations – one assisting destitute widows, the other for the education of street children.

Affiliation: St. Albert United Church
<http://www.stalbertunited.ca/>

DON REID

Don Reid has been volunteering at the Elizabeth Fry Society of Edmonton for longer than most of its staff members (~ 20 yrs). He has assisted in Provincial Criminal docket court, as an adult court worker alongside the assigned Duty Counsel, he helps to triage the people who are arriving at court and offers support and resources. During this time he has built a strong rapport with court staff, lawyers, crown prosecutors & judges, and is well respected amongst his peers.

Affiliations: Elizabeth Fry Society
<http://www.efryedmonton.ab.ca/>

ERIC STOREY

Eric has long been a positive adult mentor and support to youth in care through the Office of the Child and Youth Advocate, and the Big Brothers and Sisters organization of Edmonton. He is also actively and vocally involved in advocacy for LGBTQ seniors and older adults, serving on Edmonton's LGBTQ seniors pride network, exploring improved service delivery and housing options for elders in our community. Eric has presented at conferences on topics of seniors financial literacy, issues faced by LGBTQ seniors, and the mentoring of high risk youth and youth in care.

Affiliation: Big Brothers and Sisters of Edmonton
<http://www.bbbsnefl.org/>
The Pride Centre of Edmonton
<http://www.pridecentreofedmonton.org/>

KARL HANSEN

Karl Hansen was a founding member and the inaugural president of the Edmonton Seniors Slo-Pitch Association (ESSPA), formed in 1985. Through his determination and drive, the league now has four diamonds at Airways park (considered to be among the best in the city), and over 300 players 45yr+, enjoying a unique experience of playing slo-pitch and socializing with their peers. He has also spent countless hours in fundraising for both the ESSPA and the Northgate Seniors Lions Club of Edmonton.

Affiliations: Edmonton Seniors Slo-Pitch Association
<http://www.esspa.ca/>

JACK WARWICK-FOSTER

Jack has been a volunteer Group Fitness Instructor with the Jamie Platz and William Lutzsky YMCAs in Edmonton for many years. His innovative and dynamic classes are for the Active Older Adult and his cheerful and fun-loving attitude have made even the most reluctant exercisers keen and willing to try. Jack stays current with fitness trends by attending trainings and workshops, and he's an inspiration to staff and members alike.

Affiliation: YMCA of Northern Alberta
<https://northernalberta.ymca.ca/>

DAWNING BOSTON

Since joining Lifestyles Helping Hands Seniors Association (LHSA) in 2007, Dawning Boston has been influential in taking seniors assisted transportation to a new level in Edmonton. . As a member of the Door-Thru-Door steering committee she helped lead the introduction of a new "state of the art" software, which makes delivery of transportation for seniors more dependable and efficient . As an ongoing member on the Board of LHSA, Dawning continues to advocate for the needs of seniors in our city.

Affiliation: Lifestyle Helping Hands Senior Association
<http://www.lhhsa.org/>

ANNA DER

This nominee has a passion for ensuring the provision of safe affordable transportation for lower income seniors, helping them to live independently for as long as possible. During Anna Der's tenure as Executive Director of the Seniors Assisted Transportation Society of Greater Edmonton, she always had the best interest of the clients in mind, with the priority of having a ride there when they needed one. She also did whatever was necessary for this service to continue and grow, from writing grant proposals to staging creative fundraising events.

Affiliation: Seniors Assisted Transportation Society
<http://www.satsofedmonton.org/>

MARY McVEETERS & SHIRLEY BAYNES

These two determined individuals had a mission – that of ensuring their neighbours and their community had accessible transportation. When a decision was made to no longer have a bus stop located directly in front of Gateway Manor, Mary and Shirley went to work to let the “powers that be” know the negative impact that this was having on residents. They led a letter-writing campaign which led to a Town Hall style meeting at Gateway Manor with city officials. It was due to their efforts that a positive outcome was achieved.

Affiliation: Gateway Manor
<http://www.gef.org/Housing/Self-Contained/gatewaymanor.aspx>

BAREND VANDERMAS

Mr. Vandermas is well known and loved at Emmanuel Home, an assisted living residence in northeast Edmonton. Since 1997 he has volunteered up to ten hours per week offering rides to residents, to just about anywhere they needed to go. He also leads “active game time”, provides assistance at social events, and acts as a Bingo Caller. His kindness, patience and sense of humour bring joy to both residents and staff, and they are most grateful for his selfless manner of giving.

Affiliation: Emmanuel Home
<http://emmanuelhome.ab.ca/>