OTHER PROGRAMS

SHAPES Program- start the New Year with a New You! This was a successful pilot project from the University of Alberta where seniors were taught modules on healthy living, eating, engagement and more. Together you would learn, motivate each other, try to make healthier life choices & meet new people. Sage is working to bring this amazing program online to our seniors in the New Year. If you are interested in learning more, please email rtassone@mysage.ca or call 780-701-9016.

Virtual Support Group for Anxiety and Depression Offered by the Family Center. If you are interested in being part of this group – offered by the Family Centre - it will be approximately a five-week course starting in January. For information or to register please contact Kristen Oliveros, registered therapist, at kristen.oliveros@familycentre.org. Or if you would like more information, please click here or here, or call 780-900-5934.

WAIVERS AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Online / phone waiver

By registering and participating in any online programming provided by Sage, you are providing Sage with access to your name, contact information, and other personal information that you may share. You give Sage permission to use this information to contact you, and to keep track of your participation for internal purposes. You can stop participating at any time, and can withdraw your personal information from Sage's records at any time. Please note that online programming may be less private and confidential than face-to-face programming - you may not know everyone who is listening or watching.

By using the Zoom link or toll-free number to call-in or join in the activity online, the participant acknowledges the involved risks, dangers and hazards, which could result in injury or loss, and waives any and all claims for liability for any loss, damage, expense or injury as a result of participating in the class. This program uses video and audio technologies for our sessions rather than asking for participants to come into our building. Sage has purchased the Zoom plan with the highest level of security settings. We do our best to make sure that any info you give to us during programs is private and secure but want to acknowledge that no video or audio tools are ever completely secure.

By registering and participating in any online programming provided by Sage, you are providing Sage with access to your name, contact information, and other personal information that you may share. You give Sage permission to use this information to contact you, and to keep track of your participation for internal purposes. Waiver for physical activity

By participating in any online or call-in programming provided by Sage, you knowingly and voluntarily assume the risks associated. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to be aware of the risks associated with the activity and to safeguard yourself by ensuring:

1. That you are physically capable of the activity,
2. That you exercise safety measures appropriate to the activity; and
3. That you do not participate beyond your capabilities.

By participating in Sage programming, you release Sage Seniors Association from any liability related to your participation. Please consult your primary care provider/a medical professional before beginning any exercise regime.

Code of conduct

Sage Seniors Association is an inclusive environment. This means that we value and support diversity and individuals from all walks of life. We ask each participant to help us by allowing every participant to contribute and letting the facilitator guide and direct the group. Please contact Sage directly at 780-423-5510 if you have an issue with a group member. Please also remember to keep all personal information shared confidential, do not interrupt when others are speaking, and treat each other with dignity and respect.

Need technical support?

Do you have questions on how to use your device or computer, email, access Sage programming virtually, or how to send attachments? Maybe our volunteer Dennis can help! Contact Rachel at rtassone@mysage.ca or call 780-991-1869 to set up an appointment with Dennis.
